FAFE

Part of the Regional Tourism Authority of Porto and Northern Portugal, the municipality of Fafe is located in the north of the country, in the district of Braga. Fafe has around 50,000 inhabitants, a geographical area of 219.08 km² and borders Guimarães (15 km away), Felgueiras (12 km), Póvoa de Lanhoso (23 km), Vieira do Minho (31 km), Cabeceiras de Basto (22 km) and Celorico de Basto (25 km). In terms of accessibility, the municipality is served by the IC5 which connects Guimarães to Fafe and the A7 which links to Braga (42 Km) and Porto (68 Km). The potential of its architectural, landscape and natural heritage is put to good use to attract visitors to the municipality. The beautiful handicrafts, the Returned Brazilians' houses, the hiking trails, the marvellous waterfalls, and the various museums that tell the story of the town are the hallmarks of a municipality rich in traditions and cultural diversity. The breathtaking rally competitions, the outstanding cuisine, whose signature dish is the veal roasted in a wood-fired oven, along with the awe-inspiring landscapes are also some of the many attractions for tourism in Fafe.
